

Terry Fleck's
Canine Legal Update Training Opportunity
Austin, Texas
May 3, 2011

Sponsored by
Austin Police Department and Greater Austin Crime Commission

Presented by Terry Fleck, deputy sheriff and canine handler (retired) and author of the Canine Legal Update and Opinions for supervisors and administrators plus patrol, narcotic and contraband, explosives, tracking, search and rescue and accelerant dog teams. Praised for reducing canine unit liability and increasing K-9 officer safety, this newly updated training opportunity will be available in Austin, Texas. The one day course addresses:

- ✓ Canine deployment issues
- ✓ Canine policy
- ✓ Report writing
- ✓ Handler compensation issues
- ✓ Accidental bites
- ✓ Canines as less-lethal force
- ✓ Extensive case law on canine applications
- ✓ Canine training
- ✓ Vicarious liability issues
- ✓ Narcotic and contraband case law
- ✓ Explosive canine case law
- ✓ Tracking canine case law
- ✓ BONUS TOPIC: 5th circuit court rulings

The course will address the legal issues of canine usage, canine tactics, and litigation prevention. Terry is retiring in 2012 so this is the last year his classes will be offered. This is the MUST training for supervisors and K-9 handlers. The knowledge gained in Terry's Canine Legal Update Training could potentially save you and your department thousands in litigation related costs.
